

Dear Customers:

Digital Catalog Release "BIGFOOT PRODUCT NEWS 2020"

FE TRADE CO., LTD released Japanese version of RUPES "BIGFOOT PRODUCT NEWS 2020" digital catalog on June 23, 2020. You can flip over pages as if you were reading a paper based publication. Besides, a lot of useful functions unique to digital catalogs are available. Please take this opportunity to try it.

■ Characteristics

◎Multi-device support

You can view the catalog from anywhere as long as you have a device connected to the Internet, such as a PC, tablet, or smartphone. You can intuitively flip over pages just like a paper based publication. Also, there are various functions unique to digital catalogs available.

◎Direct access to the purchase pages

By clicking products on the digital catalog, you can directly access product pages on our website and smoothly check product specifications and make a purchase.

*ID and password are required for the purchase.

◎Note function (PC version only)

You can insert a note on a page with a product that you are interested in so that you can check it later. Since the note will be preserved for a certain period of time as a bookmark even after you closed the catalog, it is quite useful when you would like to check products again later.

◎Search function of digital catalog

You can easily access a page of a product and its specifications that you would like to check by using the search function.
